

Holistic model of community media training combines three elements:

Media Awareness - e.g. knowledge of radio genres, the role of community radio in society

Media Skills - creative, production, journalism and technical skills

Media Identity - raising consciousness in of understanding relationship between identity and media and confidence to play a part in representing that identity through community media

